The Delaware College of Art and Design’s 2016 High School Art Exhibition will feature student artwork from High Schools of current and prospective DCAD students selected by their art teachers. The exhibition is an opportunity to showcase the high school art programs that represent the diversity of the Delaware College of Art and Design’s student community.

How to Participate

• This open call for entries asks every high school art instructor to select up to twelve total works from all four grades (9th, 10th, 11th and 12th). If no 9th grade work is selected, additional 10th – 12th grade work can be included, but no more than twelve works total for each high school. More than one piece of artwork per student is acceptable, but counts as two submissions. Please limit the number per student to three pieces.
• Two-dimensional entries must be ready to hang securely.
• Submit digital pieces on CD or on a flash drive. Monitors will be available for digital submissions.
• All three-dimensional work must be suitable for display on a pedestal. Over-size three-dimensional work may be displayed on the floor without the use of a pedestal or table.
• Submissions that do not meet these requirements will not be eligible for entry.
• Final curatorial decisions will be made by the Delaware College of Art and Design.
• The entries must be accompanied by a completed School Application Form. Each entry must include the Name of the Student, Grade, and School on the back of his or her artwork.
