YOUNG ARTISTS

PRE-COLLEGE PORTFOLIO DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP
COURSE ID: YA0099
Taught by DCAD faculty
SIX SESSIONS
Monday and Wednesday, 6 – 8 PM
Section 1: October 16 – December 12
Section 2: February 26 – April 16
Section 3: April 23 – June 11
NON-CREDIT Tuition: $210; 1.8 CEUs
This course offers tools and techniques for creating a successful visual art portfolio. Students will continue to develop their individual style through a variety of assignments. Experimentation is strongly encouraged. This class includes demonstrations and hands-on practice and seeks to refine techniques and presentation skills. Each student will be given personalized direction in the selection of an area of concentration in the building of a portfolio and receive recommendations on development of additional portfolio quality works of art.

KALEIDOSCOPE SEMINAR FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
Saturday, 9 AM – 3:30 PM; October 23
ADMISSION: $30
Sponsored by the Delaware Foundation for the Visual Arts, this exciting day of hands-on workshops will be hosted by the Delaware College of Art and Design from 9 AM – 3:30 PM. Versatile artists and art educators will present sessions for students currently enrolled in grades 9-12 that are interested in visual arts. Students may choose a morning and afternoon workshop; lunch is included with the $30 registration fee. Brochures and registration materials will be mailed to high schools. For additional information about KALEIDOSCOPE or to be added to the mailing list, please contact Meg Fierro at 302.429.0131 or by email megfierro@gmail.com

DCAD’S AFA DEGREE PROGRAM
If you are interested in learning more about the Delaware College of Art and Design’s Associate of Fine Arts Degree Program, contact DCAD’s Admissions Office at 302.622.8000.