

COLLEGE RESOURCES

A1 600 North Market Street

The Delaware College of Art and Design, or DCAD, is located at 600 North Market Street in the center of downtown Wilmington. Its historic art deco building is a well-equipped educational facility. Up to date technologically computer imaging and graphics labs, and a photo studio reflect the latest developments in these fields, while painting, drawing, and design studios, bathed in natural light, merge modern with traditional approaches.

A2 Housing

The Delaware College of Art and Design offers student accommodations at 707 N. King Street. Students desiring housing can utilize these units. While there is no college policy stipulating mandatory housing, often students benefit from closer proximity and better access to college resources.

A3 Dining

The Delaware College of Art and Design offers an on-campus dining hall, located in our 707 King Street dormitory. The dining hall, offers a large selection of meal and snack options for breakfast, lunch and dinner during the week and brunch and dinner on the weekends. Vegan and other special diets are included with healthy options. If a special diet is required, a student should notify Student Services prior to August orientation.

A4

The Edgar A. Thronson Library is a specialized art and design library supporting the research needs of DCAD's students and faculty. The library houses a collection of more than 18,000 books, Technology such as MacBook Pros, Tripods, Studio lights, videos, digital images, electronic resources, as well as subscriptions to art and design periodicals. The collection of art and design resources supports and supplements DCAD's intellectual and artistic goals, with particularly strong collections in animation, art history, fine arts, graphic design, illustration, and photography. Search the library's collection by accessing the online catalog in Populi or by visiting the library in person. In addition to both the library's physical holding and electronic resources the library participates in an interlibrary loan network, which allows patrons to borrow materials from libraries across the U.S. In addition, DCAD students can visit nearby library collections at the Wilmington Public Library, Delaware Art Museum, and the University of Delaware.

A5 Exhibition Spaces

The Delaware College of Art and Design maintains supervised exhibition spaces for displaying the work of students, faculty, and alumni of the College including the first floor Toni & Stuart B. Young Gallery. The Gallery is open to the public and provides an important showcase for student and faculty work, as well as visiting exhibitions. The gallery participates in the downtown Art Loop that attracts visitors and residents alike to explore the cultural resources of the city.

A6 Mailboxes

Each student in the AFA Degree Program is assigned a mailbox. Student mailboxes are located on the fourth floor in the Rowland Student Lounge. It is the students' responsibility to check their mailbox on a regular basis for important notices and information regarding school policies, meetings and activities.

A7 Email

All DCAD students are issued a College email address: jdoe@dcad.edu and an account. Students are required to monitor messages that are generated by faculty, the registrar and other DCAD offices. DCAD uses Populi as it's course management system and student information system, students can see their classes, housing options, and financial information here. All students also receive an Adobe account.
