

DRAWING IV: PERCEPTION AND METAPHOR

5.12.2017

WITH STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Drawing IV: Perception and Metaphor (FA232, 4 credits)

Course Description:

Students will develop the ability to think creatively and develop an authentic and unique personal vision. Synthesizing and building on ideas introduced in previous courses, students will continue to deepen their engagement with the formal possibilities of black, white, and color media. Intensive investigations of concept and process will continue to focus on the dynamic relationship between form and content. Emphasis will be placed on composition, space, and movement both in class problems and individual independent projects. The class culminates with the creation of a personal body of work developed through independent research and in class critiques.

Prerequisite: Drawing III

Students will:

1. Create images that demonstrate the knowledge of the relationships between form and content. (PC 1, 2, 3, 4)
2. Display a sophisticated skill set in a variety of drawing media to create convincing representational work, including the ability to draw the figure. (PC 1, 2, 4)
3. Create complex drawings informed and evolved through a conceptual structure that result in strong, expressive personal statements. (PC 3, 4)
4. Demonstrate an advanced ability to utilize different methods of creative problem solving and critical thinking to promote the development of ideas in the student's work and in the critique process. (PC 1, 2, 3, 4)
